Phoenix Group partners with Supply Chain Security, Inc. to provide C-TPAT compliance manuals and other services

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL In a statement today, Jerry Peterson, President of Supply Chain Security (SCS) and Managing Director of Phoenix Group announced that the two companies would begin immediate cooperation to develop a series of C-TPAT security manuals for sale on the SCS Web Site.

Phoenix Group personnel will also assist Supply Chain Security with the development of C-TPAT, SCIA, and BASC training for release on its subscription e-Learning site. The advantages of offering these courses over the Internet are enormous to everyone in the supply chain. Courses are offered on a 365 x 24 basis to all global companies.

Michael McNicholas, the Chief Security Officer of SCS, is the author of many of the initial courses in supply chain security, Terrorism Awareness, and C-TPAT compliance.

Supply Chain Security is headquartered in Fort Lauderdale, FL..
